

University Preparatory Academy Education Protection Account Spending Plan

- Proposition 30 Education Protection Account (EPA) was approved by voters in 2012 and temporarily increases state sales tax for all taxpayers and personal income tax rates for upper-income taxpayers to enable state to fund schools' general purpose entitlements
- School boards must vote on a spending plan and post to school's website
- Funds may not be used for salaries/ benefits of administrators or any other administrative costs
- Estimated EPA spending based on entitlement calculated by CDE; actual amount and expenses may be different than stated
